over the Vid, which is the only means of egress from Plevna on the south and west. The investment of Plevna is now complete. The correspondent thinks that Osman Pasha, engirdled by the vastly superior artillery which the Russians can now bring to bear from all sides, will soon find his position untenable. A special dispatch from Sofia to the Daily Telegraph says: Chefket Pasha, at the head of a strong force, is advancing to the relief Osman Pasha's army is amply provisioned and supplied, and in fine condition.

Notwithstanding the Russian progress westward the Turks are confident that Plevna will nold out.

FROM ARMENIA. LONDON, November 6 .- The Daily Telegraph's Erzeroum dispatch, dated Monday, says: "A severe attack was made to-day on the Turkish positions. The fighting extended along the whole line. After ten hours' fighting the Turkish centre was driven in and the Turks compelled to fall back, Moukhtar Pasha was slightly wounded."

EDINBURGH, November 6.-The Scotsman's London correspondent says: In political circles there is general expectation that Earl Beaconsfield will shortly-possibly at the Lord Mayor's banquet-make a speech on the Eastern question which will provoke a renewal of last year's excitement and agitations. It is reported that he will put his foot down on the question of opening the Dardanelles to Russian and other

London, November 6 .- The Paris correspondent of the Times telegraphs the following: At an important meeting of the Deputies of the Left to-night it was decided only to unseat Deputies whose election was plainly due to official pressure. They also decided to maintain a strictly expectant attitude, and to furnish to the Government no pretext for its getting out of its embarrassments, but on no account to accept a Cabinet contrary to parliamentary rules.

Resolved, That no member of the majority should undertake the formation of a Cabinet without stipulating for freedom cf action and guarantees against the recur-Pence of events similar to those which have just occurred.

In departmental elections the Republicans have on an average gained one or two arrondissements or general councillors in each department. If the gains were equally distributed it would not materially affect the senatorial elections, but it is so distributed as to give advantage to the Republicans in several departments.

6. TENEMENT No. 20, adjoining the above, on Governor street. occupied by E. B. Cook.

7. TENEMENT No. 1209, in rear of above. Nos. 5 and 6, on the south side of Franklin between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, occupied by A. Rooney and others, and running back to the proper ty of John A. Beivin.

And on TUESDAY the 13th day of November, commencing at 12 o'clock M., the following FOUR VERY VALUABLE LOTS OF GROUND, under lease, yielding ground-rents, as follows—to wit:

8. The LOT at the northwest corner of Main and Twelfth streets, upon which stands the BUILDING No. 1118 Main street, occupied by Messrs. Cowar-

Nos. S. 10, and 12, norm twenth street, occupied by the Staats Gazette, V.A. Favier, and George Mc-Govern, yielding for the whole a ground-rent of $370.40 per annum in gold.

The ground-rents for these four lots are absolutely net, clear of all deductions for taxes, insurance, assessments and charges of any kind whatever. The leases, or any of them, may be terminated at the option of the owners of the ground at the explication of any current year of the tenancy, which is on the 1st day of April, they in that case paying to the owners of the buildings the fair valuation thereof, to be made by competent disinterested persons, mutually chosen; but the leases may be continued from year to year indefinitely, upon the same terms, at the pleasure of the owners of the ground.

For perfect security and the assurance of certain fixed income these lols of ground, by reason of their excellent location and the very favorable leases thereof, offer every inducement that could be desired for the investment of the funds of estates, widows, orphans, or capitalists seeking a substantial security and sure returns.

On the same day (13th November) at 4 o'clock P. M.—

12. The large, handsome, and very valuable DOUBLE BRICK RESIDENCE at the southwest corner of Franklin and Sixth steeets, formerly the residence of the decedent and afterwards of his family. No pains or expense were spared in the construction of this house, and it is justly regarded as one of the most elegant and desirable residences in the city. It contains about thirteen rooms besides attic, closets, &c.; has all the modern improvements, with complete out-buildings of every kind, and is finished in the most beautiful manner. The LOT (to be sold with the house) is 57x1314-12 feet.

TURNPIKE AND HARVIE STREET. IN SIDNEY, AND ADJOINING THE PROPERTY OF COLONEL SCOTT, HOYT, AND MRS, ANN G, MARTIN AND OTHERS.—By virtue of an order of Richmond Chancery Court in the case of P. M.
Tabb and wife vs. Shapard and others, May 6, 1873,
I will sell at auction, on the premises (part of Blandon farm), on FRIDAY. November 16, 1877, at 3 o'clock P. M., TWENTY-FOUR AND ONE-FIFTH ACKES OF LAND, laid off into lots of about one acre cach; a plat of which will be exhibited at the office of the auctioneer. These lots will be sold one acre with the privilege of two or three acres; and as they lie beautifully—adjoining one of the handsomest improvements of the city, and in a locality destined at some future day to be the most valuable of suburban investments—should attract the attention of capitalists and others seeking to place money where the quickest returns may be made. Already the park recently laid off by the city has assumed proportions beautiful and lovely to behold, and the adjoining lands must necessarily improve in value yearly, giving to the investor a splendid chance for speculation in the advance which must take place in a very short time.

TERMS: One third cash, one third in six months, and the balance in twelve months, the credit instalments to be secured by herotiable notes, with interest added from day of sale (six per cent, per annum), and title retained until the sale is confirmed and deed ordered to be made by the Court.
